

FIRST INTERNATIONAL NANOTECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE ON COMMUNICATION AND COOPERATION

Speaker's Bio

Mark Lundstrom

Mark Lundstrom is the Don and Carol Scifres Distinguished Professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering at Purdue University where his teaching and research center on the physics, technology, and simulation of electronic devices. Lundstrom is the founding director of the NSF-funded Network for Computational Nanotechnology, which has a mission of research, education, leadership, and service to the nation's National Nanotechnology Initiative. He serves on the leadership councils of the NASA-funded Institute for Nanoelectronics and Computing and the MARCO Focus Center for Materials, Structures, and Devices. Lundstrom's work has been recognized by several awards, most recently the 2002 IEEE Cledo Brunetti Award, which he shared with his colleague Supriyo Datta for their contributions to the physics and simulation of nanoscale electronics devices.
